Conference Waiver and Release:

I hereby agree as follows:

1. Risks of Participation. I fully recognize that there are dangers and risks to which I may be exposed by participating in the National Collegiate Leadership Conference (referred to as “conference”). I understand that the University of Arizona and its governing board, officers, employees, and agents (collectively the “University”) does not require me to participate in the conference, but I want to do so, despite the possible dangers and risks and despite this Release. I therefore agree to assume and take on myself all of the risks and responsibilities in any way associated with the conference.

Participation in the National Collegiate Leadership Conference includes, but is not limited to, participation in workshops, presentations, meals, on and off campus excursions and service projects, teambuilding, and entertainment. I understand that participation in these activities at the conference is optional and I want to participate despite the possible dangers and risks associated with the activities.

I also understand that if I choose to participate in higher risk activities such as Entertainment, Service Projects, and/or Excursions, I am subject to the risks associated with those activities. These include, but are not limited to: potential inclement weather, physical exertion, exposure to animals, lack of phone communication, use of equipment and tools, and exposure to allergens. These may pose a risk to me and I understand that these risks may result in bodily harm, allergic reactions, and even death. I understand that I am responsible for wearing proper attire, following safety instructions, and coming prepared to any conference activity with food, water, and/or medication as deemed necessary for my health and safety.
